

a) Normality describes how close a topic's distribution is to the standard normal distribution

b) Components of the water budget

c) Research methods

